

OUTLINE FOR A SUCCESSFUL DIVIDER PARAGRAPH

- Topic sentence - you don't have to re-invent the wheel.
 - Example: As an eighth grade student at St. Therese Academy, I am a faith-filled Catholic who practices Christian virtues by making good moral judgements.
 - Notice: in this sentence, the only capitalizations are Catholic, Christian, and St. Therese Academy. You do not capitalize all of the words that should be capitalized in the title ABOVE your paragraph (such as Faith-Filled, Virtues, Moral, or Judgements.)
 - Words that should ALWAYS be CAPITALIZED in your paragraphs are: God, Jesus, Christ, Christian, Catholic, Bible, Scripture, St. Therese Academy
- Definition - what does this sub-level SLE mean to you?
- Why is this sub-level SLE important?
 - Detail the topic further in this section to demonstrate a thorough understanding of all aspects of your subject.
- Impact of sub-level SLE on your life in school?
- Impact of sub-level SLE on your personal life?
- Conclusion - How will mastery of this SLE help you in the future?
